CALLING ALL INTERESTED HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS! Amplifying Student Voices: Conversations on Race, Equity, and Inclusion in Education is a Seed Grant sponsored event on May 5th from 11:00 AM to 3:30 PM that builds on the work that began at the University of Washington's Robinson Center's Equity Summit in February 2017. In response to requests from youth in our community, this event is an opportunity for high school youth and undergraduates to plan, organize and contribute to discussions related to race and equity in education. We invite all members of the education community (e.g. students, administrators, educators, community leaders, family members) to attend this event! Registration to attend is FREE and lunch is provided! For information regarding speaking about your experiences, submitting a session proposal, or other questions contact amplifyingstudentvoices@gmail.com.

Lunch: Today: French toast, eggs, and hash browns, Wednesday: grilled turkey-ham and cheese with tomato soup.
Thursday: turkey hot dog with baked beans, Friday: BBQ chicken and cornbread

Ensuring that all students become honorable, skillful, thinking citizens.
